SCCPSS ADVISORY: EVENT COVERAGE OPPORTUNITY

Delaney Ann Myers, a student at Jacob G. Smith Elementary School, has co-authored her first book with her paternal grandmother, Annette McCollough Myers of Fernandina Beach, FL. Aimed at young to middle-school-aged children, Delaney's Adventures With Friends encourages reading and the use of vocabulary words. The book includes a vocabulary list and an interactive questionnaire designed to help young readers learn about themselves through adventures in and out of school.

On Wednesday, February 24, 2021 at 3:30PM, Delaney will have a book signing celebrating the release of this project. The book will be available at local area bookstores, as well as in all online book outlets. Delaney's book signing will be held at Whitney Administrative Complex, Building G.

Delaney Ann Myers is the daughter of Dedria Roberts Myers and Donald Patrick Myers of Savannah. Annette M. Myers, a Fernandina Beach, Florida, native, is a two-time National Indie Excellence Award winner. Other books by Ms. Myers are The Shrinking Sands of an African American Beach – 1st and 2nd Editions, The Big Sand Dune and The Beach Lady, and PECK High School – Golden Years Remembered.
